

Announcement of Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization regarding the intention not to receive property or other benefits from performing duties (No Gift Policy)
Fiscal year 2025

According to the Cabinet resolution on December 4, 2020, the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (revised version) was approved, specifying the promotion of reform activity 4, developing the Thai civil service system to be transparent and free from benefits. Goal 1, Section 1.1, requires all government agencies to declare that all government officials do not accept gifts and presents of any kind in the performance of their duties (No Gift Policy).

To strengthen the organization culture and honest values in acting with morality, ethics and without conflicts of interest from performing duties, Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization has established a policy of not accepting gifts and presents of any kind from performing duties (No Gift Policy) both before and after performing duties to prevent corruption and misconduct as follows:

1. Executives and officers of Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization at all levels shall not accept or give any gifts or presents of any kind in the performance of duties, whether directly or indirectly, both before and after performing duties.
2. Executives and officers of the Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization at all levels must not seek to obtain gifts, presents, and illegal benefits, both before and after performing their duties.
3. Expressing congratulations, wishes, welcomes or condolences on various occasions according to tradition should be done by signing greeting cards, guest books or using online media instead of giving things in order to create an organizational culture that is economical.

4. The executives and officers of Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization shall not accept any property or other benefits during, before, and after performing their duties, which may be calculated as money, apart from accepting property or benefits that should be obtained under the law, rules, or regulations issued under the power of the provisions of the law, except for accepting property or other benefits ethically according to the announcement of the National Anti-Corruption Commission on the criteria for accepting property or other benefits ethically by government officials, B.E. 2563.

Therefore, this is announced for general information and all executives, officers and personnel of Na Pradu Subdistrict Administrative Organization are requested to strictly comply.
